Since the first of the month, no less than three bills have been filed, bringing the total of this class of suits to 25.

Carrie Mossholder asks to be divorced from Charles H. Mossholder, charging that he deserted his family. Fern Wescott is asking for separate maintenance from William Wescott and Laura Sherman seeks separation from Albert Sherman, charging cruelty as the cause for the action.

The circuit court will have the opportunity of hearing the case in which the city of Dixon brought action against Edgar Owens, socialist speaker, where he is charged with resistance to officers. The jury in a justice court found Owens guilty of the charge and assessed a fine against him which was remitted by that body.

Meeting Will Be Held at Court House on Tuesday Morn.

Chairman Harry Warner of the Lee County Republican Central Committee has called a meeting of the committee to be held at the county court room in the court house at 11:00 o'clock Tuesday morning for the purpose of naming delegates to the judicial convention to be held at Freeport on Thursday, Sept. 18, at which time a party candidate will be named for election to succeed the late Judge James S. Baume of Galena as judge of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit. Following the meeting of the committee the members will be guests of Chairman Warner at a luncheon at Lowell park lodge.

The democratic county committee has not yet been summoned to meet, for as far as local leaders have been informed no lawyer of their party affiliation is desirous of running for the place. It was stated by a prominent Dixon democrat this morning that friends of Attorney Cal Seyster of Oregon are making a strong effort to induce him to enter the race, but whether these efforts will be successful has not been indicated.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVEPreliminary Barrage Will Be Fired at City Hall Thursday.

Dixon Post No. 12, American Legion, will make its first operation in a major membership campaign with a preliminary barrage at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, when the Post will meet at the G. A. R. hall in the city building. This meeting will be addressed by District Chairman Robert H. Engle of Freeport, and every member is asked to be present in order to assist in firing the first shot in the drive which should make every man and woman who served with Uncle Sam's forces during the world war a member of the Legion.

At the opening meeting every effort will be made to thoroughly explain to all ex-service men and women the policies of the Legion and to outline the work which must be done.

Adopt a Slogan
"4,800,000 of us. Let's stick together!"

will be the slogan of the American Legion in their drive of September 15-20 for a million members. The Legion already boasts a membership of over 250,000 and it is expected that before the National Convention opens at Minneapolis on Nov. 10, the goal will have been reached.

Among the many matters advocated by the American Legion are:

Bonuses.

Present passport regulations, which threaten to bar foreign travel by Americans for a year to come.

The commendable plan of the Knights of Columbus to provide annual scholarships for veterans, regardless of Creed.

The color line question and how the Legion can best handle it.

The National military training policy.

Vocational education.

Soldiers Benefit Legislation.

Punishment of American Military authorities for cruelties to American soldiers while in prison camps.

EARLY GROUP HALTS.

The marchers were stopped by deputy sheriffs as they attempted to enter Perry county yesterday and they retreated back to this city. It was announced that an injunction is being sought at Pinckneyville restraining the authorities from interfering with the marchers. It was also announced that as soon as the restraining order was granted that the march would be continued through both Randolph and Perry counties.

Advocates Meet to Oppose Resolution

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Sept. 6.—With the return today of Senator Kellogg, Minnesota, senators favoring "mild" reservations to the peace treaty conferred and it was said, decided to oppose the committee resolution of ratification.

Senators attending the conference said opposition would be based principally against the reservation on article 10 of the league of nations covenant.

This committee reservation, the conference said is regarded as involving "scuttling of the whole league."

Senators attending the conference expressed confidence that with anticipated support of the democrats they would secure adoption at least of a modified reservation to article 10.

ARMED MINERS IN
W.VA. ARE ASKING
FOR UNIONIZATION3500 Men Ignore Plea
By Gov. Cornwell to Be Peaceful.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 6.—Five hundred miners who left Oak Grove this morning to march across the mountains to Coal river where they said they intended to enforce unionization in mines were joined at Racine on the Little Coal river, by 3,000 more men, according to word received by Gov. John J. Cornwell shortly before noon. All of the men are said to be armed.

It is reported that coal operators yesterday unloaded a car load of machine guns at different places in Logan county as a means of preparation to meet the miners.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 6.—Reports this morning indicated that the 5,000 miners, most of whom are armed, gathered at Winifred Junction, Kanawha county, would not march to the Guyan coal fields, Logan county, to enforce unionization there, as they had planned.

Governor J. J. Cornwell last night went without escort to the miners' camp and plead with them in their intention. On top of a trunk and surrounded by hundreds of miners, the moonlight glinting on their rifle barrels, Governor Cornwell asked the miners to be American citizens and preserve order.

The governor told them that he had proof that propaganda intended to incite them had been spread among Cabin Creek miners and there was no verification of a report that miners had been shot down by guards at the Guyan mines, and that women and children were being killed.

Rumors and reports of which Governor Cornwell spoke spread through the Kanawha district yesterday and many of the mines were closed.

Union officials were of the opinion this morning that the miners would abandon their scheme to enforce unionization.

DIXON "Y" TO PUT ON MEMBERSHIP
DRIVE SEPT. 30

To Take Part in State Campaign—Quota to Be 700 Members.

Dixon Y. M. C. A. will participate in the state membership campaign September 30 to October 3, it was decided by the board of directors at a meeting last evening.

Twenty associations in the state will take part in the campaign, each fixing a goal to reach during the drive. Dixon's goal will be about 700 members, nearly 100 more than the present membership.

The campaign will take the form of a contest, each city competing for a silver cup to be awarded the association getting the highest percentage of its quota. Daily reports from the different associations will be given out at the state headquarters.

Other Business Matters.

The board also decided to close the local Y building all next week while some needed repairs and alterations are being made. Upon the reopening the winter's campaign will be launched.

WOULD COMPEL
WATER CO. TO GIVE SERVICE

Susan Brown of this city this afternoon through her attorneys, W. G. Kent and H. A. Brooke, filed mandamus proceedings in the circuit court against the Dixon Water company to compel them to turn on the water which she says has been shut off since June 20. The complainant in the bill sets forth that on June 20th the Water company turned off the water on her property and has since refused many times to turn on the water. The action of the water company was brought about because the complainant did not vide frost proof vault or pit to accommodate the water meter as ordered by the water company.

LONG'S CONDITION
REMAINS THE SAME

Emerson Long, the I. N. U. lineman who was knocked from a pole near West Brooklyn Thursday morning, suffering injuries which paralyzed him, remains in about the same condition at the Amboy hospital, where he was taken after the accident. The company's surgeon, who has attended him since the accident, has been unable to determine fully whether the unfortunate man suffered a broken back, but he is of the opinion that one or more vertebrae may be fractured. But little can be done for him, pending developments.

MAY NOT HAVE TO LOSE FIRST FINGER

After a week's care the surgeon, who is attending Edward Harvey's injured hand which was mangled under an automobile at the Yellow Taxi Line barn when a jack slipped from under the frame of the machine, is of the opinion that the first finger will not have to be amputated. It will be remembered that at the time of the accident the middle finger and that the index digit was so badly crushed that it was feared it, too, would have to be taken off. The injuries are healing slowly, and in all probability the young man will have one or two stiff fingers the rest of his life.

TREATY IS "SHOT THROUGH" WITH AMERICAN VIEWSWilson Declares Paper is One of Greatest in Human History.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 6.—President Wilson appealed to a Kansas City crowd today to support the peace treaty as a charter for a new order of world affairs.

Making his third speech for the treaty in Missouri to a capacity audience, President Wilson spoke in convention hall, said to accommodate 25,000.

When the president, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson appeared on the platform of the vast auditorium the crowd, each of whom had a small American flag, arose and cheered for more than two minutes.

President Wilson had been cheered as the presidential party paraded through four miles of the city's streets to convention hall.

Mr. Wilson was introduced by B. A. Parsons, president of the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce.

Filled With U. S. Principles.

The president covered many of the same points of the treaty he had discussed in previous addresses. He said he had come to report directly to the people about one of the greatest documents in human history. The treaty, he declared, was "shot through" with American principles, put there by the common consent of the world.

One of the things America had had in heart throughout her whole existence, said the president, was that arbitration and consultation should be substituted for force. This was accomplished, he declared, by the league of nations covenant.

Talk War Nine Months.

Nine months of discussion of any international controversy would be assured under the covenant, he asserted, adding that this principle previously had been written into early arbitration treaties "all of which were confirmed by the United States senate."

The principle of the league, he declared, already had been adopted by the United States.

The boycott imposed on covenant breakers was emphasized by the president as constituting a measure more effective than military force. The "most conclusive" thing that could happen to a nation, he continued, was "to be read out of decent society."

End Military Clan.

Effective disarmament would be accomplished under the covenant, Mr. Wilson predicted, declaring it was ridiculous to talk of the league as tending to war when "its whole essence" is arbitration and peace. The league, he declared, would mean the end of the "military clan" throughout the world forever.

"There is no other way to dispense with great armaments without an agreement by the great nations of the world," said Mr. Wilson, "and here is the agreement."

Autocracy would perish with militarism, said the president, and the intrigue which had terrorized Europe for generations would be ended. He declared that "democrats will sooner or later have to destroy that kind of government and if we don't do it now the job will still be before us." The task, (Continued on Page Five.)

May Make Canadian
Army Highest Paid

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 5.—Official information here from Ottawa, indicates that members of parliament from the Western province are supporting a movement, recently launched, to give Canada the highest paid standing army in the world.

It has been an open secret for some time that the Dominion government was experiencing great difficulty in reorganizing its standing army. Long service in France has caused fighting men to decline various government offers for regular service and the plan now under consideration is to increase the pay for privates from $1.10 to about $3 a day.

Reports made public here show that after nearly five months of recruiting for the local company of the historic Princess Pat regiment, only 14 men have been enlisted. Military men have declared, however, that they anticipate brisker enlistments during the winter.

OBSERVE LAFAYETTE
BIRTHDAY AND FIFTH
MARNE ANNIVERSARYFrench Ambassador Gives Principal Talk at N. Y. Gathering.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Sept. 6.—Ambassador Jusserand of France was the principal speaker at Franco-American exercises held in the city hall today in commemoration of the 162nd anniversary of the birth of Lafayette and the fifth anniversary of the first battle of the Marne. Messages of felicitation and congratulation upon the victory of the allied arms which had been brought to pass since the last celebration by the Lafayette day committee were read from President Poincare of France, General Pershing, Major General Wood and Secretary of State Lansing.

Other speakers were Myron Horlick, former governor of Ohio and ex-United States ambassador to France and Dr. John H. Finley, state commissioner of education. The government's representatives included France, the United States, Great Britain, Canada, Italy, Japan, Belgium, Russia, Poland and Greece. In the afternoon, services at the Lafayette monument in Union Square were participated in by the Society of the Cincinnati Sons of the Revolution, G. A. R., Society of the Colonial Wars and the Society of Founders and Patriots of America.

Peace of Safety Secured.

Ambassador Jusserand in his address said that "the war has now ended as it should" and that the peace which has been signed was not a peace of "vengeance," but a peace of reparation and safety. He paid a touching tribute to memory of Theodore Roosevelt saying that both nations mourned the absence of one man and "hearing no more a voice which, on momentous occasions, reached from one end of the world to the other, teaching men how to attain better days through courage, sense of duty and good citizenship, a voice now hushed forever."

Touching upon Lafayette's devotion to the American cause and America's later response to his aid, the ambassador said: "When Lafayette heard of American independence his heart enlisted. When you heard of the danger of France your hearts enlisted."

Railway Shopmen to Discuss Dismissal
of Head Officials

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 6.—The executive council of the federated railway shopmen of the Chicago district has called a national convention to be held here on September 25, it was announced today, to act on the new wage scale granted by President Wilson.

Steps will be taken at the convention to oust the grand lodge officials now in Washington in conference over wages with Director of Railroads Hines and other officials of the government, according to John D. Sanders and M. L. Hawver, who issued the call.

More than 2,000 delegates from local unions throughout the country are expected to attend the convention and these represent 200,000 workers who, it was stated, will tie up the transportation of the country should they decide to strike.

Sen. Norris Asserts
Wilson is Wrong on Treaty with Japan

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Sept. 6.—Prefacing a prepared address on the league of nations, Senator Norris, republican of Nebraska, declared in the senate today that President Wilson's statement in his St. Louis speech to the effect that Great Britain and the other allies had promised Japan Germany's rights in China in order to get Japan into the war was "erroneous."

"It is a matter of history that Great Britain and the other allies did not make that secret agreement with Japan until 1917," said Senator Norris. "At the time that agreement was made all of Germany's possessions in China had been captured and there was not a German ship on the Pacific so the president has not got his history on straight. I challenge the president to produce evidence to substantiate what he said in St. Louis."

The Dixon Browns base ball team of years ago will go to Erie tomorrow afternoon to meet the town team of that place and a number of fans who are anxious to see the old boys, many of whom have seen service in the nation's military forces, again in action on the diamond will accompany them. Paris at Once.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Vienna, via London, Sept. 6.—Dr. Karl Renner, head of the Austrian peace delegation, has informed the newspaper correspondents here that he would return to St. Germain Sunday and sign the peace treaty handed Austria this week.

WILL DECIDE SUNDAY

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Sept. 6.—Dispatches which reached the peace conference today from Vienna indicated that the Austrians probably would formally decide tomorrow to accept the peace treaty. Chancellor Renner is expected to return to Paris immediately in which case the treaty will be signed Wednesday morning, September 10 at St. Germain.

TERMS ARE ASSAILED

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Vienna, Wednesday, Sept. 3.—(Delayed.)—The peace terms handed Austria by the allies at St. Germain were printed in this morning's newspapers accompanied by editorial expressions of protest and despair. The Arbeiter Zeitung characterized the terms as "bitter, spiteful and unjust." It added: "the entente is using its power in the most shameful manner to ill-treat and outrage a defenseless people with a peace based on might."

The Tagesschau says:

"In vain do we search for a sign of justice, regard for our utter incapacity to fulfill, or consideration for the principal of self determination for peoples."

It adds that the reparation commission must begin its work by constituting itself a revision commission.

FORMER DIXON
MAN AND WOMAN
IN TOILS OF LAW

Chas. Mossholder and Mrs. Win Siebert in Rockford Jail.

Charles Mossholder and Mrs. Win Siebert, both former residents of South Dixon, were arrested yesterday morning at Rockford by Sheriff Baldwin of Winnebago county on a charge of living together out of wedlock, according to information given Sheriff Schoenholz. Both were taken to the county jail at Rockford and held pending further investigation into their cases. It is quite possible that the pair will be turned over to the federal authorities on a charge of violating the Mann act. It is said that since leaving this county three years ago, "the couple have lived as man and wife in both Iowa and Wisconsin and returned to Illinois in June, taking up their residence in Rockford."

Sheriff Frank Schoenholz went to Rockford yesterday afternoon, being called there by Sheriff Baldwin to confer as to the past reputations of both parties. Charles Mossholder left his wife and several children in South Dixon three years ago this month, going away, it is alleged, with Mrs. Win Siebert, who also left her husband and a family.

Since their departure Mrs. Siebert's husband has obtained a decree for divorce in the Lee county circuit court and is remarried. Mrs. Mossholder has already been granted separate maintenance for herself and children and has a bill for divorce pending before the coming term of the circuit court.

Mossholder started divorce proceedings in Winnebago county after taking up his residence at Rockford and his wife was notified here. Both he and Mrs. Siebert, who are said to have passed as man and wife in the neighborhood in which they resided, may now be taken in charge by the federal authorities and prosecuted for violating the Mann act.

WARD MILLER LEADS LEAGUE IN NUMBER OF INDIVIDUAL RUNS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Ill., Sept. 6.—As the close of the American league swing into the final month of the pennant race, Ty Cobb is driving for the batting championship, which, with the exception of two seasons, has been in his possession for twelve years.

Unofficial average release today show the celebrated Georgian hitting .371—twenty-one points ahead of Oscar Veach, his teammate, and closest batting rival. In 194 games, Cobb has whaled out 155 safe blows for a total of 210 bases. Thirty of Ty's hits went for two bases, while eleven were of the three-bagger variety and one home run. The averages include games Wednesday.

"Babe" Ruth, the averages show, is within one home run of tying the world's four-bagger record of twenty-five established by Buck Freeman. In addition to driving out twenty-four homers, Ruth tops the league in total base hitting. He has stretched 118 hits bagged in 111 games for a total of 240 bases. His home run record is topped off with twenty-six two base hits and a dozen triples.

George Sisler, the St. Louis star, continues to show the way to the base stealers with twenty-seven with Harry Hooper, of Boston, runner-up with twenty-five. Eddie Collins, of Chicago is third with twenty-four. Chapman, of Cleveland, is the leading sacrifice hitter with forty-three.

Other leading American league batters for forty or more games: Jackson, Chicago, 348; Sisler, St. Louis, 345; Peckinpaugh, New York, 340; Jacobson, St. Louis, 334; Fawcett New York, 325; Shorten, Detroit, 329; Ruth, Boston, 318; Heilmann, Detroit, 317; Collins, 315; McInnis Boston, 315.

Roush, however, leads the league in total base hitting. Compelling in 116 games, the Reds' outfielder has slammed out 143 hits for a total of 198 bases. Heinie Groh, the Cincinnati third baseman, leads in scoring, having registered seventy-five. Cutshaw, of Pittsburgh continues to show the way to the base stealers with thirty-one. There was little change among the other leaders, who continue to be topped by Hendryx, of Louisville, with .349. Becker and Good, Kansas City teammates, are giving Hendryx a run for the batting honors, as they are in second and third place, respectively, with marks of .340 and .339.

Miller, of St. Paul, who last week broke the tie for home run honors has added another circuit drive to his string of fourteen. He also is far in front in total bases with 253. ## OHIO TEAM HERE TO PLAY DIXON SUNDAY

Ohio and Dixon base ball teams will clash at the Brown's park in this city tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The shoemakers will make an especial effort to make up for the two games they recently dropped through bad days in the field. Lightner and Larkins will be the battery against the Bureau court team.

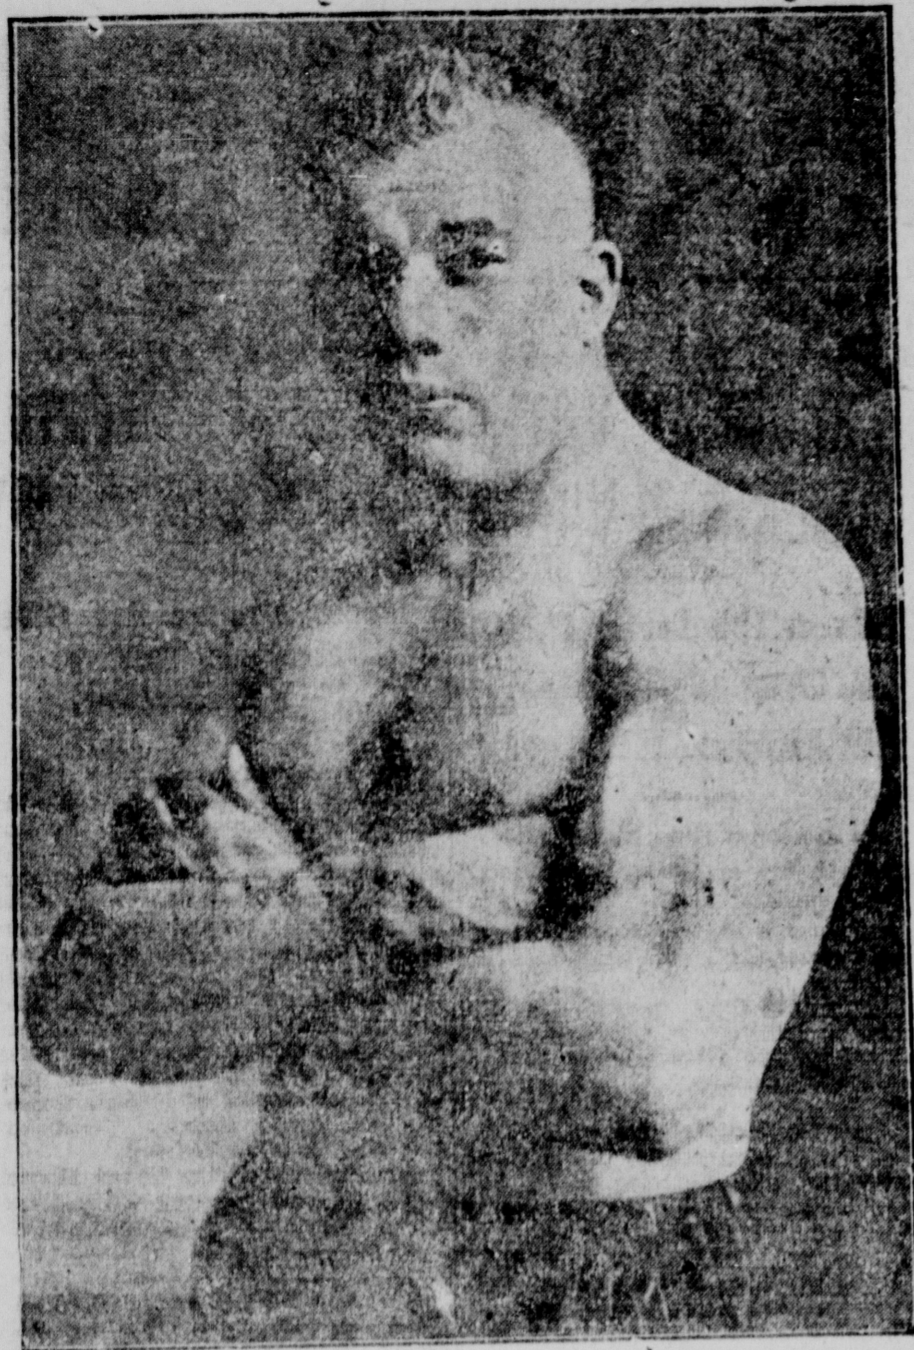

Bob Woodyatt, hero of Dixon's 26 inning game against Muscatine ten years ago, will attempt a come back in tomorrow afternoon's game, and will occupy the mound when the numps starts the festivities. Bob says his arm is in good shape and "the old man" expects to breeze through the entire nine innings. However, if his old whip goes back on him, George Lightner will be on hand to take up the battle. The Browns will line-up:

SUCH IS LIFE.

Some fans wouldn't call this much of a game. Too one-sided to be really interesting. The Cost of Living team seems to have it all over the minor league aggregation they are playing. All star team, the Cost of Living. While the Pa and Ma team plays very amateurishly, I'll say they're minor league.

Time is unimpaired.
First Inning.
Pa gets on first by getting a raise in pay. Ma lines out a home run by renting the upstairs front room to the school teacher for three dollars a week. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

Cost of Living team hops to Pa's pitching right from the start. You'd think they'd were Babe Ruths, the way they wallop the ball. Butcher leads off with a fine double into the outfield, and steals third when he weighs his dumb along with the round steak Ma sends Johnny for. Shoe Dealer gets a base hit, and Landlord knocks the cover off the ball for a home run. Every player on the Cost of Living team gets a run or more. 14 runs, 20 hits, 12 errors (all charged to Pa and Ma.)

Second Inning.
Pa and Ma get all rattled, buying a flyver, and going away for a vacation, while the Cost of Living team piles up 27 runs.

Fourth Inning.
Pa strikes out three times, but Ma scores once when she wears her last summer's dress instead of buying a new one. 1 run, 1 hit, no errors.

Cost of Living raps Pa for seven home runs and scores 11 times off Ma's delivery. Pa almost tosses the game away with a bum error when he sways a Liberty Bond for a scrap of old stock paper.

Fifth Inning.
Pa makes a nice hit by raising a bunch of vegetables in his garden, and Ma makes another when she puts 'em away in cans for winter. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

Cost of Living tried out running round bases, and a new pitcher by name Federal Prosecution goes into the box for the Pa and Ma team. This combination holds the Profiters down to 16 runs. The Cost Man is now pitching for the Profiters, and Winter Clothes is catching, although between you and me, Pa and Ma are catching it worse—$16 for Johnny's school suit, and $5 for his shoes! 16 runs, 21 hits.

Pa and Ma had a pinch hitter, but she moved out of the upstairs front room, leaving the team $3 a week to the bad, unless they can rent the room pretty quick. No runs, no hits.

This is the "lucky seventh" for the Profiters. What they do to the ball

SEVEN $400 PURSES AT OGLE CO. FAIR, OREGON, NEXT WEEK

Race for Trotters Without Records is Also on Program.

The Ogle County Fair will be held in Oregon next week, Sept. 9, 10, 11, 12. A fine program of harness races has been outlined, seven $400 purses, and two extra races, one for Ogle county horses and the other for trotters without records, being the offering. Four free acts, consisting of first-class vaudeville, acrobats, tumblers, wire walkers, trapeze and bicycle acts, will be given on a big stage in front of the grand stand each day.

The old amphitheatre has been torn down and a new structure has been built in its place. The old ticket office constructed back in the sixties, which Jesse James and three members of his notorious gang came to Oregon in the early seventies to rob, has also been torn down. Failing to connect with the gate receipts at the Oregon fair, the bandits went on up to Northfield, Minn., where they met a hot reception and wound up their career.

Trent C. Frey, flying for the Rockford Aero Co., and a former government instructor in aviation, and until recently employed as aerial mail carrier, will be at the fair each day and will carry passengers in flights over the grounds.

Already stall spaces for over 100 head of show cattle has been taken by breeders in this section. Among those who will have herds of cattle at the fair are Senator Melvin McCormick of Byron, G. W. King of Kings, Hiram Ludwig of Rochelle, E. M. Detweiler, Polo, A. W. Brooks, D. B. Kump, Chas. Reed, John Veer and Ray Mayhew of Oregon. Entries for exhibits of horses, dogs and poultry are also coming in.

Four short-horn bulls, each valued at close to $5000 will compete for a special premium of $2500 offered by the American Short-horn Breeders' association for the champion short-horn bull in Ogle county. Mr. William H. Smith, head of the Extension Department in the Department of Animal Husbandry of the University of Illinois will judge the stock exhibits.

Mr. Calvin Ott of Prophetstown, Ill., will judge the poultry and Col. W. F. Merriman of Williamsville, Ill., will start the races.

School children are admitted free of charge on Wednesday.
Big space has already been taken by concession people, and the largest exhibit of farm machinery, tractors, trucks, milking machines, etc., ever seen in Ogle county will be at the fair this year.

Music will be furnished by the Mt. Morris, Polo and Brookville bands, and Beaman's five piece jazz orchestra.

Ogle county is going to have a real fair this year—plan to attend it.

FIRST FOOT BALL AT FREEPORT, SEPT. 27

The Dixon high school football team will play its first game of the season at Freeport on Sept. 27, three weeks from today, and Coaches Potter and Vazina will call the men together early to get the squad at practice. With but three weeks for practice it is not expected the team which will represent the union high schools of the city can be gotten into the best of shape, but the coaches anticipate a large squad of candidates for the team and since the union districts will give players from both sides of the river a first class organization should be available.

WANTED GIRLS IN PACKAGE DEPARTMENT. STEADY WORK. GOOD WAGES. APPLY TO MR. LAUDER UNIVERSAL OATS CO.

The match is to be for two falls out of three and the championship of the state in that class goes with the decision.

Fighting Chaplain Honored By French

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Camp Funston, Kas., Sept. 6.—In the closing days of the war, when American troops in the Puvellie sector were advancing on Metz under terrific artillery bombardment, a chaplain laid aside the rather advisory duties of his rank and for two days and nights helped in evacuating wounded men under a withering enemy fire, without regard for his own safety.

That chaplain was Ora J. Colhee of the 34th Infantry, Seventh Division, and for the bravery he displayed under fire the French government has awarded him the Croix de Guerre with gold star, which was presented to the chaplain this week by Brigadier General Wahl, Commander of the Seventh Division.

The commander of the Seventh Division proposes that all Kansas and Missouri men receiving decorations from his own government or from foreign governments come to Camp Funston for a formal presentation, and has arranged for a dinner by the divisional staff and use of the band and troops of the division in the ceremony.

Telephone Manners and Methods

From the Saturday Evening Post's TEN TELEPHONE COMMANDMENTS

9. "In asking for your number pause slightly between the hundreds and tens. This helps the operator, for the numbers are arranged on the switchboard by hundreds and tens, and the operator locates them by first finding the right section of hundreds and then getting the exact jack for the tens given her.

10. Never forget that during a telephone talk you are the sole representative of your firm to the person on the other end of the line. Never forget the story of the buyer who called a certain business house, and when the private-switchboard operator demanded sharply "Who are you?" he replied: "I am the man who is through buying from your house as long as you are there."

Today was the birthday of Marquis Lafayette, and the monument will mark the place from which he sailed to America in 1777 and to which he returned five years later on board the American ship Alliance. It also will mark the spot where the first American troops to be landed in France left their ships in May, 1917.

Clemenceau, Foch there. President Poincare arrived here this morning on a special train, being accompanied by Premier Clemenceau, Marshal Foch and United States Ambassador Wallace. With Mr. Wallace were Rear Admiral Andrew T. Long, naval attache, and Captain John H. MacCadden, assistant military attache at the American embassy in Paris.

Ten senators and 25 members of the chamber of deputies were the official representatives of the French parliament on board the train.

The party was greeted here by the commemoration committee headed by Deputy Maurice Damour and Senator Gaston Menier. After a short stay the train left for Pointe De Grave.

Deputy Damour, who with Senator Menier has prepared a souvenir sketch entitled "from Lafayette to Wilson," said today that the sculptor, Barthelmy, who is designing the monument, will complete his work on the drawings in a few days and that the work of construction will proceed immediately.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS.

SANDRA IS FRIGHTENED

CHAPTER LXVI
An officer came soon after I had dressed and took a list of all that was missing, with a description of each article. He gave scant hope that we would catch the burglar, giving, as at least one reason, the ticket in my bag. "You see, if he had had to stop at the ticket office and buy a ticket to get out of town, it would be one more clue. But all he had to do was to walk to the gate and get in the crowd going thru."

Again I wondered what Everett would say when he heard this. He would not disobey him and followed him as the station, I should not have bought the ticket and the burglar could not have used it.

I had gone to see Betty's friend to find out more about Leola and Thomas had been injured and the motor car damaged. I had allowed the burglar who had shot James to get away with my jewels, because I had bought a ticket to New York. When he told me I shouldn't go. He would come home to an upset household, my sapphires gone, both men unable to wait upon him, and a lot of notoriety besides—something he abhorred.

Thinking of it all made me so nervous I could scarcely breathe. I was no normal woman perhaps—I was too immature, too young. Certainly I was not normal where Everett was concerned. He would come home, find I had followed him to the station, and then I would hear of the robbery—if he had not already done so, and I would be so unhappy because of his displeasure that I would cry again and be utterly miserable.

Then, too, the presence of an officer in the house was upsetting. He had been so curious, had asked so many questions as to why I had that ticket to New York, that I felt horribly uncomfortable. It was as if I knew the burglar and had helped him get away. I told Mrs. Gray when I could keep still no longer.

"Don't mind him," she told me. "They have to be suspicious, you know. It was unfortunate that you had it, that is all."

"Mrs. Gray, do you suppose Ev—Mr. Graham will blame me for all that has happened?" I could keep still no longer. And she looked so sympathetic, so kind, that I just blurted out: "He told me he wouldn't take me, but I went to the station just the same, and tried to follow him. Then I was so disappointed I didn't know what to do, so I proposed the visit to Betty's friend. Then Thomas was hurt and the machine damaged. But if I had gone with him and taken my jewelry there would have been nothing much for the burglar to have taken and perhaps no one would have heard him and James would not have been shot. Oh dear, I seem to have been to blame for everything that has happened!"

"Don't feel that way, Mrs. Graham. I am sorry you went against your husband's wishes, and so had that ticket for the burglar—yet after all he may not have used it. But accidents are unavoidable. Take it all in all, I consider you have been very fortunate. You might have been terribly injured in the automobile accident, and you might have been shot by the burglar instead of James."

"But Mrs. Gray—would he have scolded his first—the first Mrs. Graham?"

"Mercy, no! he never scolded her for anything!" Then, recollecting: "He won't scold you either. He will be too thankful you are not injured," but I noticed that when she spoke so impulsively—for her—of Leola, she had flushed as if she had regretted her words, and had looked remorsefully at me.

"You are sure he wouldn't have scolded her?"

"I never heard him say a cross word to her," she acknowledged.

"Then he shan't scold me! Just because he was unhappy because of some things she did, I am not going to be treated like a child, and made to walk a crack. It isn't fair!"

The door bell rang just then. Betty brought me a yellow message. I opened it and read:

"Home late tonight. Do not stir up or me.—Everett."

STARVING THE SPIRIT.

An eastern theological seminary has advertised for "fifty volunteers to enlist as candidates for the Christian ministry." The school thus advertising is a dignified establishment, able to offer its graduates high connections with other institutions of learning at home and abroad. Yet instead of setting forth arduous requirements for those who seek its portals, it appeals through advertising to unknown and unborealed volunteers.

The interpretation of this is simple,
and the warning it gives to churches and states and cities is solemn. We say of the minister, "the laborer is worthy of his hire," but we do nothing to show that we mean it. The overwork and underpayment of ministers is so notorious that fewer and fewer young men regard it as a career. The secular occupations are full of men who have been ordained, and who succeeded in the work of the ministry, but did not succeed in making a living for wife and children.

What has happened to the ministry will occur in the teaching profession sooner or later, unless there is a revolutionary reform, a public revolt from the present parsimony. The time will come when "volunteers" must be called for as for a forlorn hope. It is presumed that the teaching profession shall contain the best brains and con-sciences of the community. We can no longer presume this if successful teachers must find some other occupation to make a living.

Everyone is glad of increases in wages for workers in any line. But if America is to give adequate compensation only to craftsmen and clerks, and attempts a purblind economy toward ministers, teachers, and all who serve the spirit, we shall soon feel the grave consequences of such enormous folly.

WHAT IS A PROFITEER?

There is a great deal of loose talk about "profiteering." It is quite vague and general.

What is needed, evidently, is a satisfactory definition of the word "profiteer." So far, there does not seem to be any agreement on the subject.

It will hardly do to say that anybody who is making more money than usual is a profiteer. That would take in the farmer, the doctor and the mechanic no less than the manufacturer and merchant. Nearly everybody is making more—and spending more. The high prices hit everybody.

It will hardly do, either to judge merely by the "excess profits" on which the government has been levying a war tax. Excess profits indicate, of course, that the man or firm paying them has been making more money than before the war; but there is no scientific basis of reckoning establishment. Some men paying that tax are not paying as much as they ought; others are paying too much. Some who are making more than before the war are able to save less—high costs interfere.

In general, it probably comes to a question of proportionate profit. What percentage of profit on the monthly or yearly turn-over was customary in any particular business in normal times, before the war? What percentage did a manufacturer or jobber or wholesaler or retailer expect to make on the goods he sold? And is he making a higher percentage of profit now? If a certain man or firm expected to clear 10 percent on goods handled, say from 1910 to 1915, is that man or firm getting a price that gives him more than 10 percent now? Would this not be a fair criterion, affording protection for consumers and yet leaving business men free to increase their incomes by increasing their volume of business, as practically all of them did during the war, and are still doing?

Whatever the definition we make of the word profiteer, there is one class of people that must be included in it—the food hoarders, the cold-storage men who hide away foodstuffs in order to create an apparent scarcity and then to command exorbitant prices. And we might include also all those who combine or make "gentlemen's agreements" to hold up prices to the point of profit that constitutes real robbery.

CORN AND PORK.

The downward plunge of corn and pork in the provision markets is proof enough that so far as these commodities were concerned the high prices have borne no relation to the costs of production. Those prices were purely speculative.

Further it has been shown that, in spite of loud assertion, the price of corn was not fixed upon the price of wheat. The government is not the least likely to repudiate its guarantee wheat price to the farmers and let the markets fix the prices to the consumer.
Director Barnes of the Grain Corporation reports that conditions warrant a higher price for wheat in the open markets than that now maintained by the government. And meanwhile, though wheat is at an unchanging price level, corn moves downward in great leaps.

Whatever may come of the explosion over the high costs of living, the public is the gainer by one thing, namely, that the arguments and explanations for high corn and pork, so vigorously put forth these last few months, are no longer worth the wind of speaking them.

President Dares Not
Tell Facts Regards
Shantung, Norris Says

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Sept. 6.—Senator Norris, Republican of Nebraska, speaking in the senate today on the claims of China to Shantung, said the president would not tell the facts regarding the disposition of that province, "because it would cast some reflection on the peace conference."

Supporters of the administration, he said, "dare not because it would incur the displeasure of their great leader," so the senator announced he himself would relate the story of "the troubled community."

In Narrative Form
In narrative form that usually begins
"once upon a time," Senator Norris told the story of Shantung. Throughout his speech, which never was changed from its allegorical style, nations were referred to as individuals, Germany being styled Bill Kaiser; Japan, Mr. Jap; Great Britain, France and Italy, as John Bull, Mr. French and Mr. Italiano, respectively, while the United States was named Miss Columbia.

Bill Kaiser, pictured as a husky fellow who trained himself in the use of firearms with the idea of despoiling his neighbors, the senator said, forcibly took the "Shantung farm" from John Chinaman and later, when the other members of the community were engaged in punishing Bill Kaiser, Mr. Jap, taking advantage of Bill Kaiser's preoccupation, seized the property.

The senator's story of the sittings of the peace conference included a satir-cal account of the journeys and methods of Miss Columbia, one who "possessed a beautiful voice and had a wonderful command of language," adding that "she surpassed by far the greatest of her sex in her ability to talk."

Senator Norris declared that China had greater cause for complaint against the United States than any of the other judges, for the seizure of Shantung makes it impossible for China to bring products from other parts of the country without submitting to the rule and regulations that may be imposed by Japan.

WIRE CO. IS MAKING
EVERY EFFORT TO END
THEIR SMOKE TROUBLEVice President Harvey in Statement Concerning Conditions.

The Reynolds Wire company has submitted the following communication to The Telegraph, concerning the smoke problem. The attitude The Reynolds Wire company is taking is one of proper public spirit and it is hoped that the other smoke offenders in the city will follow suit. The Reynolds company letter is as follows:

To Property Owners and Residents of Dixon:—
The Reynolds Wire company desires to say that they are not in the least oblivious to the fact that their East End Wire Drawing Mill has been, and is at this time, an offender as far as smoke is concerned. The City Fathers as well as the Mayor have several times called the attention of the Officers of the Reynolds Wire company to this fact, and have in this measure we believe fully and conscientiously executed the duties of their offices. Furthermore we appreciate the way in which they have taken this matter up with us, and we wish to have it known that we intend to leave no stone unturned to reduce our smoke nuisance at the earliest possible date. This is not something that can be accomplished in a day or a week, and we especially ask that the parties directly affected by and complaining of our smoke bear with us patiently a little longer.

During the first part of August our
Mr. Reynolds, together with one of the Officials of our Company, spent two days in Chicago carefully investigating various smoke consuming devices without really discovering one that could positively assure results. We are now taking the matter up with the biggest experts in this line in the Central West and are very hopeful of results.

This smoke condition is perhaps particularly annoying at the present time for two reasons. First the river is at very low stage and our Wire Mill Power Plant is called upon to furnish a large part of the power used at our Weaving Plant owing to the fact that our water turbines are operating under very low head, and in the second place to the fact that we recently broke a part of our power equipment which forces us to run our engine inefficient-ly (thereby consuming more coal) until repair part can be installed, which will be the fore part of the middle of next week. We are also in hopes of obtaining partial immediate relief by installing steam jets in our boilers. This installation will be completed by the forepart of the coming week.

Some parties have remarked to us what Dixon needs is more smoke stacks.
We agree with them in a measure, but we also agree that these "more" smoke stacks should not be a nuisance unless it is absolutely impossible to avoid their being so. We trust that with the facts thus laid before our neighbors in the East End that they will realize that we are not unhelpful of their requests but that we are earnestly striving to lessen our smoke. (Signed)

REYNOLDS WIRE CO.

Its Negroes Back

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 6.—Mississippi is organizing a movement for returning to the South hundreds of negro families that have gone north in the last few years and who now are anxious to get back to Dixie. Mississippians need their help to handle a big cotton crop and to do other work.

It is proposed to establish offices in Chicago, St. Louis and later in other cities where there are many Southern negroes; to place a competent man in charge of each office and to make it a clearing house in the handling of negroes who really want to come back to Mississippi.

Definite work will be under way before winter, when hundreds of negro families, accustomed to the mild winters of Mississippi, will be anxious to return south but will be without means of getting back, in many instances.

It has been estimated that 14,000, 000 bale cotton crop will require 2,000, 000 pickers through the picking season of from 90 to 100 days. Also it is asserted that the South must each year recruit 30,000 pickers to handle her crop. With the present dearth of help, consequently, good wages, much improved living conditions and an offer by many of the big planters to pay transportation back to the south have resulted.

DR. ALTMAN WILL END MINISTRY HERE
MONDAY, SEPT. 15

In a letter to the members of St.
Paul's Lutheran church, mailed the individuals this week, Rev. F. D. Altman, whose resignation as pastor was recently accepted by the church, announces his retirement from the local ministry in two weeks. Parts of the letter follow:

This will be my last pastoral letter to you. My ministry here will end with the close of my ninth year, September 15, 1919.

It is with sincere regret that I retire from your midst. Our fellowship has been pleasant and I hope beneficial to all.

My best wishes will ever be for your spiritual welfare.

The Church Council wishes the statement made, that it will be a great favor if all who have made subscriptions for the year or have intended to do so, will bring their payments in by Sept.
14, thereby enabling the officers to meet the obligations of the church promptly.

I can not say all I desire in this letter, but in the few services yet to be held before leaving, I shall try to express my convictions respecting the work so dear to us all. Hope to see you at every service, if possible, during the next two weeks.

"Be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you."

FRANCE RECUPERATING

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 6.—France has gone back to work with a spirit of virile courage, the spirit that brought recuperation so quickly after the war of 1870 and that paid an enormous debt so quickly as to gain the admiration of the world," according to Maurice Casenav, minister plenipotentiary and director general of the French public services, in an address here today at the celebration of the anniversaries of LaFayette and the first battle of the Marne.

Mr. Casenav, who spoke at the city club said that the false legend of "a frivolous and corrupt France" which Marshal Joffre had destroyed by the victory of the Marne had been succeeded by an equally false legend, advanced by her enemies, that France was "bleed white beyond the hope of resuscitation." He declared the progress made in his country even since the armistice was a proof that France would arise from her present afflictions greater and stronger than ever.

Developing Resources

Already, said the speaker, French industries were utilizing in water power alone, 625,000 horsepower more than before the war and by 1921 the total will have more than doubled that amount. A rosy picture of French prosperity with increased outputs of metals, textiles, coal, potash and farm products was drawn by the speaker. He also said that France's colonies, often ignored, were larger than the whole of the United States including Alaska, the Philippines, Porto Rico and other possessions that they were rich in mineral and agricultural wealth and possessed a population of more than fifty million "nearly all hard workers who have proven their loyalty to the mother country by fighting bravely for her in the present war."

DEFENDS FARMER FROM BLAME IN H. C. L.; SAYS STRIKES AND EXCESS PROFITS CAUSEWriter in Farm Paper Declares Drive on Food Prices
Imperils Next Year's Food Supply—Says Farmer Gets But Small Share.

The Prairie Farmer in a recent article defends the charge that the farmer is to blame for the high cost of living and goes into careful detail to explain why the allegation is a misapprehension.

The writer blames organized labor for a large share of undue addition to the high cost of living and the inflation of prices of goods from the time they leave the farm until they reach the consumer for the balance. Here are some extracts from the article:

"The price which a farmer receives for his products has comparatively little to do with the cost of living. A reduction of one cent a loaf in the price of bread would not make an appreciable cut in the family budget, but to make such a cut possible the price of wheat would have to be cut 65 cents a bushel.
Julius Barnes, president of the Grain Corporation, is authority for the statement that if the farmer furnished the wheat free it would still be impossible to bring the price of bread down to the pre-war cost of five cents a loaf. Not over 10 per cent of the price of an ordinary suit of clothes goes to the farmer who produced the wool or cotton of which it is made. In the case of women's clothes the percentage is smaller than this."

The writer of the article quotes a family budget of 1872, and estimates that of that amount the farmer gets about $303, or 17 per cent, and says: "to cut this amount in two would take only about 8 1/2 per cent from the cost of living—would cut the workman's expenses only $151.50. It would be equivalent to an increase of only $3 a week in his wages. Yet to cut this amount in two —an insignificant amount when it reached the consumer—would ruin agriculture and imperil our food supply."

"The real cause of the present mounting prices is the state of mind of the American people. Instead of doing our best to produce more goods so that there will be enough for everyone at a reasonable price, we are trying to better our own condition at the expense of some one else. There is only a certain amount of goods in the world at any one time. Just now we are fighting over the division of the goods we have. If we would stop fighting and go to work we would soon increase production so that there would be enough for everyone."

"Every time a strike is called, every time an industry is put on a shorter basis, the supply of that commodity, already too small, is further lessened.
This added shortage increases the opportunity of traders and speculators to increase prices and they are not slow to take advantage of that opportunity."

The Chicago Herald and Examiner is quoted as saying:

"You can't eat what isn't.
"You can't steal what isn't.
"You can't buy what isn't.
"You can't riot and get what isn't.
"You can't pass magic laws to create what isn't."

"What is the answer?"

"Work."

The eight hour day is criticised by the farm paper, saying that if the eight hour principle was applied to the farm food prices would mount out of sight, but that the farmer is just as much entitled to an eight hour day as the worker in the town. The drive to lower food prices is attacked on the grounds that it would result in little benefit to the ultimate consumer and would prove a serious blow to agriculture. The embarglo plan is criticized and the proposed plan to sell government wheat at $1.50 a bushel is declared to be liable to result in a very small acreage next year and resultant higher prices. The prosecution of milk producer's associations for alleged price fixing is declared unfair, inasmuch as other trades and combines have apparently gotten together and raised prices at the same time and to the same figure.

Dogs of War.

On July 28, 1838, General Zachary Taylor, afterward president of the United States, requested the government to furnish him with bloodhounds to be used in hunting the Seminole Indians of Florida. He was furnished with the dogs.

Note How the Essex

In Speed, Hill Climbing, Comfort and Reliability It Has Won 10,000 Owners

Proves Endurance

The 10,000 Essex cars already in service have been so distributed that every community now knows their distinctive performance.

Here for instance are people who have had wide motor car experience. They will tell you how they esteem the Essex. Its economy of operation and the fact that practically no attention is required to keep it in prime operation appeals to all.

As For Its Performance

If you haven't ridden in the Essex take the first opportunity to do so.

Come to us and we will give you the same kind of demonstration that has caused thousands to acknowledge Essex supremacy. Watch the way in which Essex cars perform on the road.
If it is at a street crossing when traffic is signaled to go ahead, observe how quickly the Essex jumps to the lead. The only car that beats it is another Essex with a better driver.

If you are on a narrow country road where an Essex signals its intention to pass another car, you will see how easy with its acceleration it can jump to the lead.

And It Will Do That Whenever Called On

Essex performance is acknowledged by everyone. No one classes it with any but the largest and more costly cars—never with cars of its weight or price class.

Now that thousands of Essex cars have been driven more miles than is usually rolled up in a season by the average automobile, owners are realizing Essex endurance.

That is why they tell you about the small upkeep expense of the Essex. They tell you about the way in which it retains its power and wanted qualities even after the hardest service. In every endurance run entered, the Essex has made perfect scores.

Such Is the Car You Should Have

It gives dependable service. It is the new day car, the type to which all moderate priced cars must come, for in addition to light weight and low operating cost, men now demand performance, luxury, comfort and endurance. The Essex is easy to drive. It turns in a short radius. It steers easily. It can be parked in spaces too small for the average car. It has many qualities you will like.

Ask yourself what car is so modern, what is the type of the future, what light car can match its performance. It is exclusive in many particulars and no other car built has all the features of the Essex.

TREATY IS "SHOT THROUGH" WITH U. S. PRINCIPLES

he continued, must be carried to the extent that no minority anywhere could control the majority.

Eliminate Small Groups.

"The men who now control the affairs of Russia," said Mr. Wilson, "represent nobody but themselves. They have no kind of a mandate. There are only 34 of them. I am told. There is a closer monopoly of power in Moscow than there ever was in Wilhelmstrasse. And a man more cruel than the czar is controlling the destinies of that people. And, if we don't want little groups of selfish men to plot the future of Europe, then we must see to it that little groups of selfish men do not plot the future of the United States."

Citing conditions in Armenia, Mr. Wilson said he "wondered that men do not wake up to the moral responsibility of what they are doing" when they are "debating and debating" while tragic situations wait to be dealt with.

Hope for Small Peoples.

Hope for "every people in the world that haven't got what they think they ought to have" was seen by the president in the league provision which empowers one nation to call friendly attention to what it thinks is an injustice inside another nation. Every such people, said he, would have a "world forum" in which to present its case.

The people, said the president, had been misled about the treaty by men who looked at it "with the jaundiced eyes of those who have some private interests of their own." When these men were "gibbeted" by public opinion, he said, "they will regret that the gibbet is so high."

Challenge to Opponents.

"If anybody dare to defeat this great instrument," he continued, "then they will have to gather together their counsellors for the world and do something better. I say it is a case of put up or shut up. Negotiation will not save the world."

The president said some men opposed the treaty conscientiously and he would take off his hat in the presence of any man's conscience. But these men, he added, based their opposition on "ignorance" of what was in the treaty.

Germany, said the president, would be the only great nation left out of the league "unless we decide to stay and come in later with Germany."

Alluding to the American promise to set the Philippine islands free, Mr. Wilson the league would solve the "very perplexing" problem of how they were to be kept free after their independence had been granted. Mr. Wilson said he could imagine the shades of the fathers looking on with astonishment "that the American spirit has made a conquest of the world."

American Spirit Won War.

"I tell you," he added, "the war was won by the American spirit. And America in this treaty has realized what those gallant boys fought for. The men who make this impossible or difficult will have a life-long reckoning with the men who won the war."

The president asked the audience not to think he had come out to "fight or antagonize" anybody.

"I have the greatest respect," he said, "for the senate of the United States. But I have come out to fight a cause that is greater than the senate and I intend to fight that cause, in office or out, as long as I live."

The President's Address.

In his address President Wilson said: "I came back from Paris, bringing one of the greatest documents of human history. One of the things that made it great was that it was penetrated throughout with the principles to which America has devoted her life. One of the most delightful circumstances of the work on the other side was that I discovered that what called American principles had penetrated to the heart and to the understanding, not only of the great peoples of Europe, but to the hearts and understanding of the great men who were representing the peoples of Europe."

"One of the things that America has had most at heart throughout her existence has been that there should be substituted for the brutal processes of war the friendly processes of consultation and arbitration, and that is done in the covenant of the league of nations. I am very anxious that my fellow citizens should realize that that is the chief topic of the covenant of the league of nations, the greater part of its provisions. The whole intent and purpose of the document are expressed in provisions by which all the member states agree that they will never go to war without first having done one or other of two things, either submitted the matter in controversy to arbitration, in which case they agree to abide by the verdict, or submitting it to discussion in the council of the league of nations, and for that purpose they consent to allow six months for the discussion, and whether they like the opinion expressed or not, that they will not go to war for three months after that opinion has been expressed, so that you have, whether you get arbitration or not, nine months discussion. That is the central principle of some treaties entered into between the United States of America and some thirty other sovereign nations, all of which are confirmed by the senate of the United States."

"We have such an agreement with France; we have such an agreement with Great Britain, we have such an agreement with practically every great nation, except Germany, which refused to enter into such an arrangement because Germany knew she intended something that didn't bear discussion, and that if she had submitted the purpose which led to this war to so much as one month's discussion she never would have dared go into the enterprise against mankind, (applause) and therefore I say that this principle of discussion is the principle already adopted by America. And what is the compulsion to do this? The compulsion is this, that if any member state violates that promise to submit either to arbitration or discussion, it is there by ipso facto deemed to have committed an act of war against all the rest. Then you will ask, do we at once take up arms and fight them? No. We do something very much more terrible than that. We absolutely boycott them. The most terrible thing that can happen to any individual and the most conclusive thing that can happen to a nation is to be read out of decent society. (Applause.)

"There was another thing that we needed to accomplish, that is accomplished in this document. We wanted disarmament and this document provides in the only possible way for disarmament by common agreement. Just now every great fighting nation in the world is a member of this partnership, except Germany, and inasmuch as Germany has accepted a limitation of her army to 100,000 men, I don't think for the time being she may be regarded as a great fighting nation.

At Paris, we were face to face with this situation: That in dealing with a particular civil government we found that they would not dare to promise what their general staff was not willing that they should promise; and that they dominated by the military machine which they had created, nominally for their own defense, but really for the provocation of war. As long as you have a military class, it does not make any difference what your form of government is. If you are determined to be armed to the teeth, you must obey the orders and directions of the only men who can control the great machinery of war. It is not merely the cost of it (armaments) but it is the spirit of it, and America has never had, and I hope in the providence of God never will have that spirit (great applause.)

"And there is no other way to dispense with great armaments except by the common agreements of the fighting nations of the world. And here is the agreement. They promise disarmament, and promise to agree upon a plan. But there was something else we wanted, that is accomplished by this treaty. We wanted to destroy autocratic authority everywhere in the world. We wanted to see to it that there was no place in the world where a small group of men could use their fellow citizens as pawns in a game; that there was no place in the world where a small group of men, without consulting their fellow citizens, could send their fellow citizens to the battlefield, and to deal in accomplishing something dynastic, some political plan that had been conceived in private, some object that had been prepared for by universal, world wide intrigue. The most startling thing at our entrance into the war was Germany's political preparation; to find that every community in the civilized world was penetrated by her intrigue. The German people did not know that, but it was known in Wilhelmstrasse, where the central offices of the German government were, and Wilhelmstrasse was the master of the German people, and this war, my fellow citizens, has emancipated the German people as well as the rest of the world.

"We don't want to see anything like that done again, because we know that democracy will only have to destroy that form of government; and if we don't destroy it now, the job is still to be done and by a combination of all the great fighting peoples of the world so as to it that the aggressive purposes of such government cannot be realized, you make it no longer worth while for little groups of men to contrive the downfall of civilization in private conference.

REACHES DES MOINES TONIGHT

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 6.—A whirlwind visit to Kansas City and a night address at Des Moines, Ia., were on President Wilson's schedule today in his speaking trip for the peace treaty.

Arriving here in the morning from St. Louis, where he made two addresses yesterday, the president was to speak at a mass meeting before noon and then leave immediately for Des Moines, where he will spend Sunday.

Standing Trip Well

Because of his late departure last night from St. Louis, Mr. Wilson arranged to sleep late on his special train, leaving it only a short time before this hour for his address. Although he is said by his physician, Dr. Cary T. Grayson, to be standing the trip well, he is conserving his strength as much as possible for the three weeks of the tour remaining before him.

Simple Reception Planned

Simplicity is to mark the president's reception in Kansas City. Automobiles will take the party by a short route over the business section of the city to Convention Hall, where the president is to speak. Introductions are to be brief, and it is anticipated the president will talk more than an hour, leaving directly after his speech for the train to continue to Des Moines.

American flags in great numbers have been used to decorate the interior of Convention Hall, and the section reserved for Mrs. Wilson and her party has been designated by a profusion of flowers.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have Bladder trouble—Salts fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can tell.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Next Liberty Loan Interest Day Sept. 15; Buy W. S. Stamps

Uncle Sam's next big pay day this year comes on Sept. 15. On that date the treasury department of the United States government will give to every investor in liberty bonds his interest. In the aggregate that will amount to $88,750,985.

With the purchasing power of the dollar lower than it has ever been, it is the part of wisdom to keep your dollars working, earning interest until money is worth more. On Sept. 15 every one to whom liberty bond interest is due has the opportunity to reinvest that interest in war savings stamps. That will keep your income growing, for the war savings stamps pay 4 per cent, compounded quarterly.

The procedure is easy. All you have to do is to take your liberty bond coupons to any postoffice and almost any bank and exchange them for war savings stamps, which are non-depreciable and non-fluctuating. In case you ever need the money, you always can cash them at any postoffice on 10 days' notice. Each purchaser of war savings stamps gains sure profit and insurance for the future. The government gains some money and assures and stabilizes its financial safety and prosperity by assuring the financial future of its citizens.

Uncle Sam will have more pay days this year. They will occur on Oct. 15, Nov. 15 and Dec. 15. If all the liberty bonds interest due from March 15 last to Dec. 15 were reinvested in war savings stamps, the total put in the latter government securities would amount to $804,057,711. Following are Uncle Sam's pay days this year and the amount of liberty bond interest it is possible to reinvest in war savings stamps:

Sept. 15 .....$88,750,985.51
Oct. 15 .....78,102,349.38
Nov. 15 .....148,517,248.75
Dec. 15 .....36,658,376.65
Dec. 15, fifth loan .....106,875,000.00

Don't forget these dates. Go to the postoffice or bank and put your liberty coupons in war savings stamps.

sub-committee investigating army affairs here nearly all of today, giving evidence that prisoners accused of simple infractions of military rules should have been separated in prisons from men who were convicted of crimes but thought that Brig. Gen. W. W. Harts, and Col. E. P. Grinstead of the 15th infantry could not be held responsible for abuses which have been under discussion.

Colonel Grinstead was brought before the efficiency board instead of before a today that this action was taken on a report by the judge advocate general in whose opinion a conviction could not be obtained in the case.

SMALL OFFERING OF CORN CAUSES ADVANCES TODAY

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 6.—Scarcity of offerings led to advances today in the corn market, especially for the Sept. delivery. Deferred deliveries reacted after an initial accumulation of buying orders had been disposed of. Sentiment was much mixed as to whether corn values were to approach the pre-war levels ahead of any other commodity.
Opening prices ranged from 1/4c decline to an advance of 2c with Sept. 1.63 1/4 to 1.64 and Dec. 1.31 1/2 to 1.33 1/2, were followed by numerous fluctuations within a moderate range, Sept. showing comparative firmness whereas December and May eased back.

Later, the fact that sterling exchange had fallen to a new low record exercised a bearish influence, but some uncertainty as to the character of the government crop report to be issued Monday led to a rally. The close was unsettled, 1/2c net lower to 2 1/4c advance, with Sept. 1.64 to 1.64 1/4 and Dec. 1.31 1/2 to 1.33 1/2.

Oats swayed with corn. After opening 3/4c off to a like advance including December at 71 1/4 to 72c the market underwent something of a sag.
Provisions were governed chiefly by the action of grain. Upturns which were scored at the opening failed to last.

Weekly Grain Review.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 6.—Big set backs in the price of corn have taken place this week largely owing to authoritative assertions that European ports were glut-ted with foodstuffs for which moneyed buyers could not be found and that the crest of the high cost of living had been passed in the United States. Compared with a week ago, corn quotations this morning were 6 1/4 to 17c lower, and oats down 1 1/4 to 2 1/4c. In provisions, the net changes varied from 5c decline to $1.50 advance.

Sentiment in the corn trade became intensely bearish after Herbert Hoover had declared that wharves and warehouses in northern Europe were overflowing with foodstuffs that were in danger of rotting as a result of lack of purchasers who could command adequate credit. Accompanying this statement was an embargo on all domestic grain shipments to Atlantic and gulf ports. Then came word from an unofficial but none the less influential source that not only had the peak of the high cost of living been crossed but that a considerable drop was in prospect. Drastic liquidation followed, and it was not until yesterday that buying showed any notable return of confidence.

Oats like corn fell to the lowest prices yet this season.
Estimates that the supply of hogs had been reduced led to a conflict of views in the provision trade, and largely offset the bearish factors that influenced grain.
